LIBRARY
WACHUSETT REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL
HOLDEN, MASSACHUSETTS

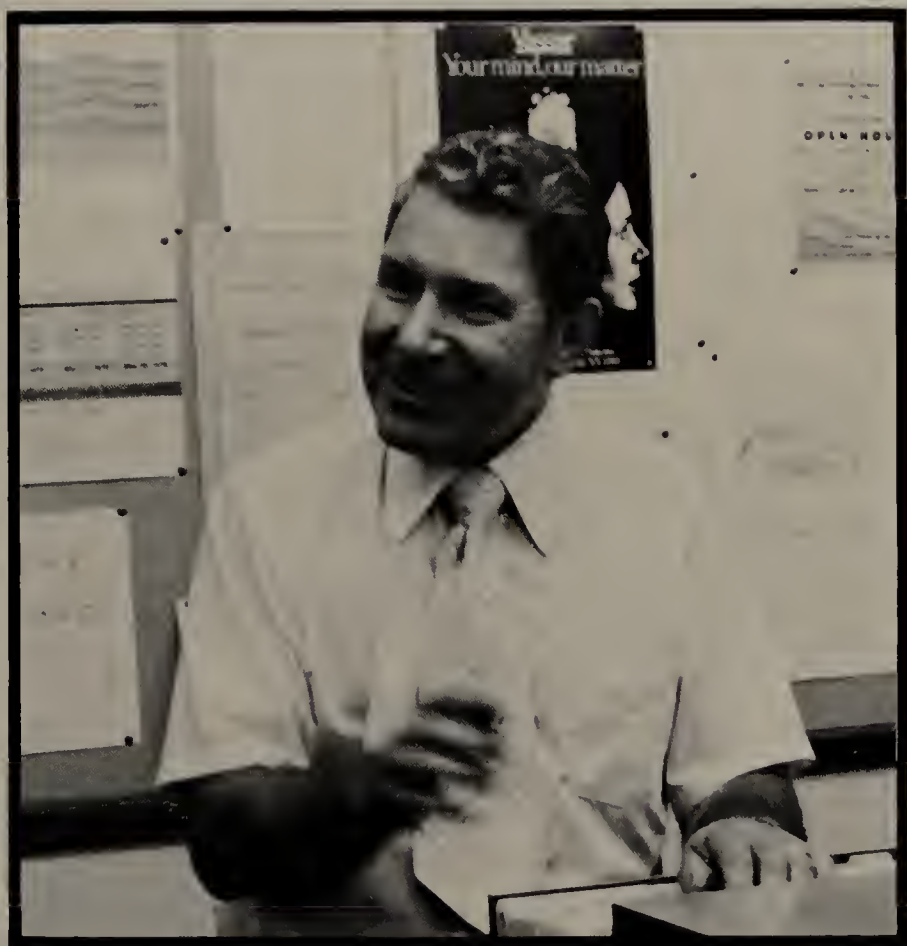

To express our gratitude and appreciation for the devotion which Mr. Groom has given to our class, the seniors of 1978 have decided to dedicate this yearbook to him. A man of enthusiasm and optimism, Mr. Groom displayed qualities which distinguish him as a dedicated counselor. Out-going, friendly, understanding, and encouraging, Mr. Groom deserves much greater thanks than can be expressed through this dedication.

Thank you Mr. Groom for doing all you have for us.

I've been thinkin' 'bout my life's time,
All the things I've done and how it's been.

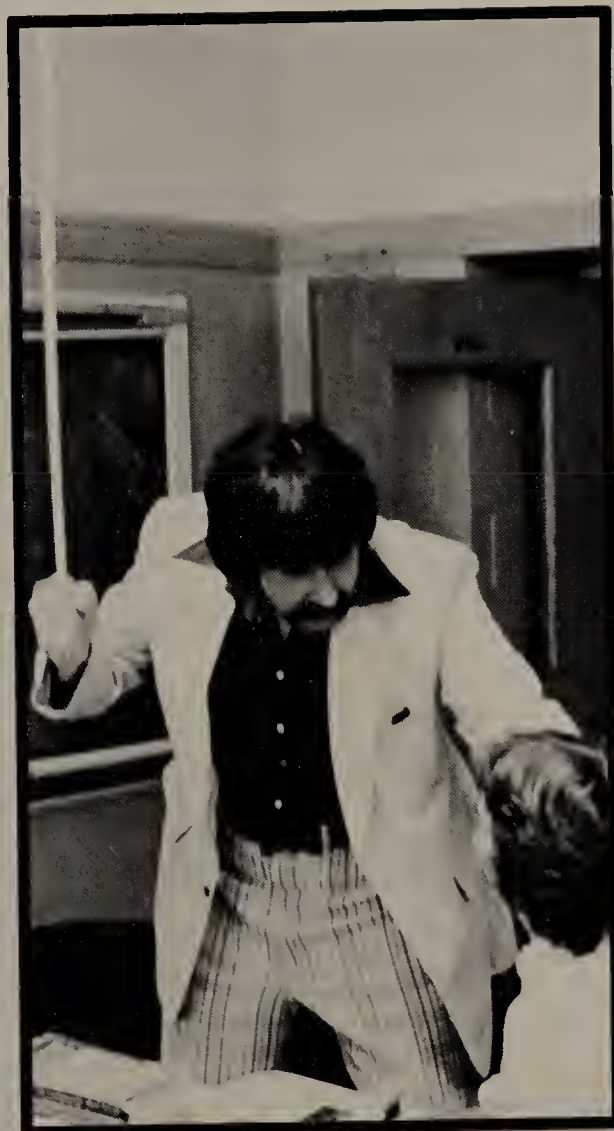

And I can't help believin' in my own mind
I know I'm going to hate to see it end . . .

. . . Talk of poems, prayers, and promises
And things that we believe in;

How sweet it is to love someone —
How right it is to care —

How long it's been since yesterday
And what about tomorrow

And what about our dreams
And all the memories we share

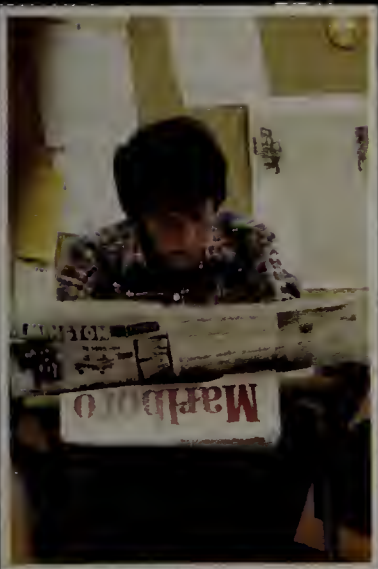

. . . The changes somehow frighten me

Still I have to smile

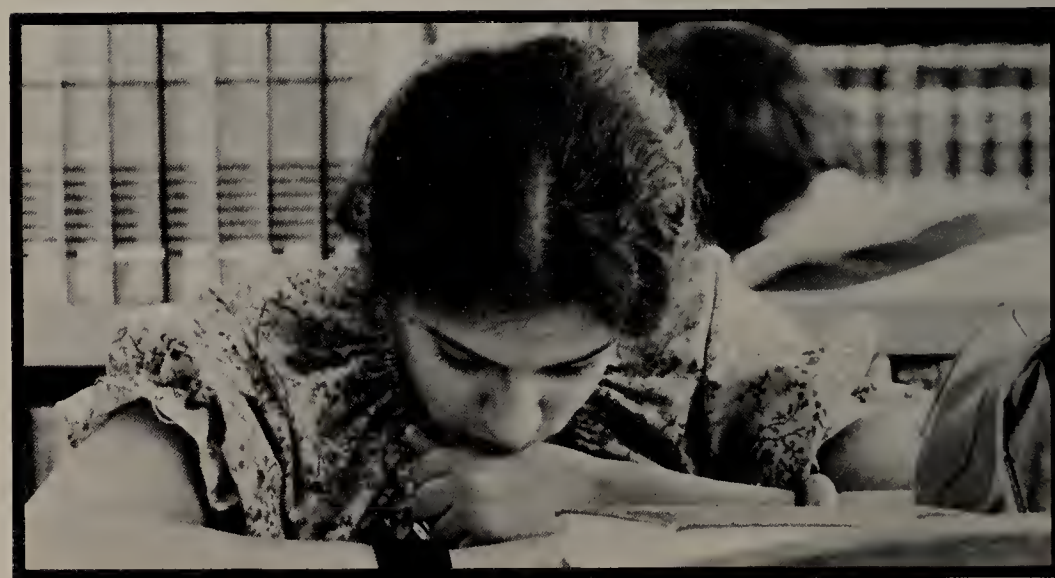

It turns me on to think of growin' old

For though my life's been good to me
There's still so much to do.

So many things my mind has never known.

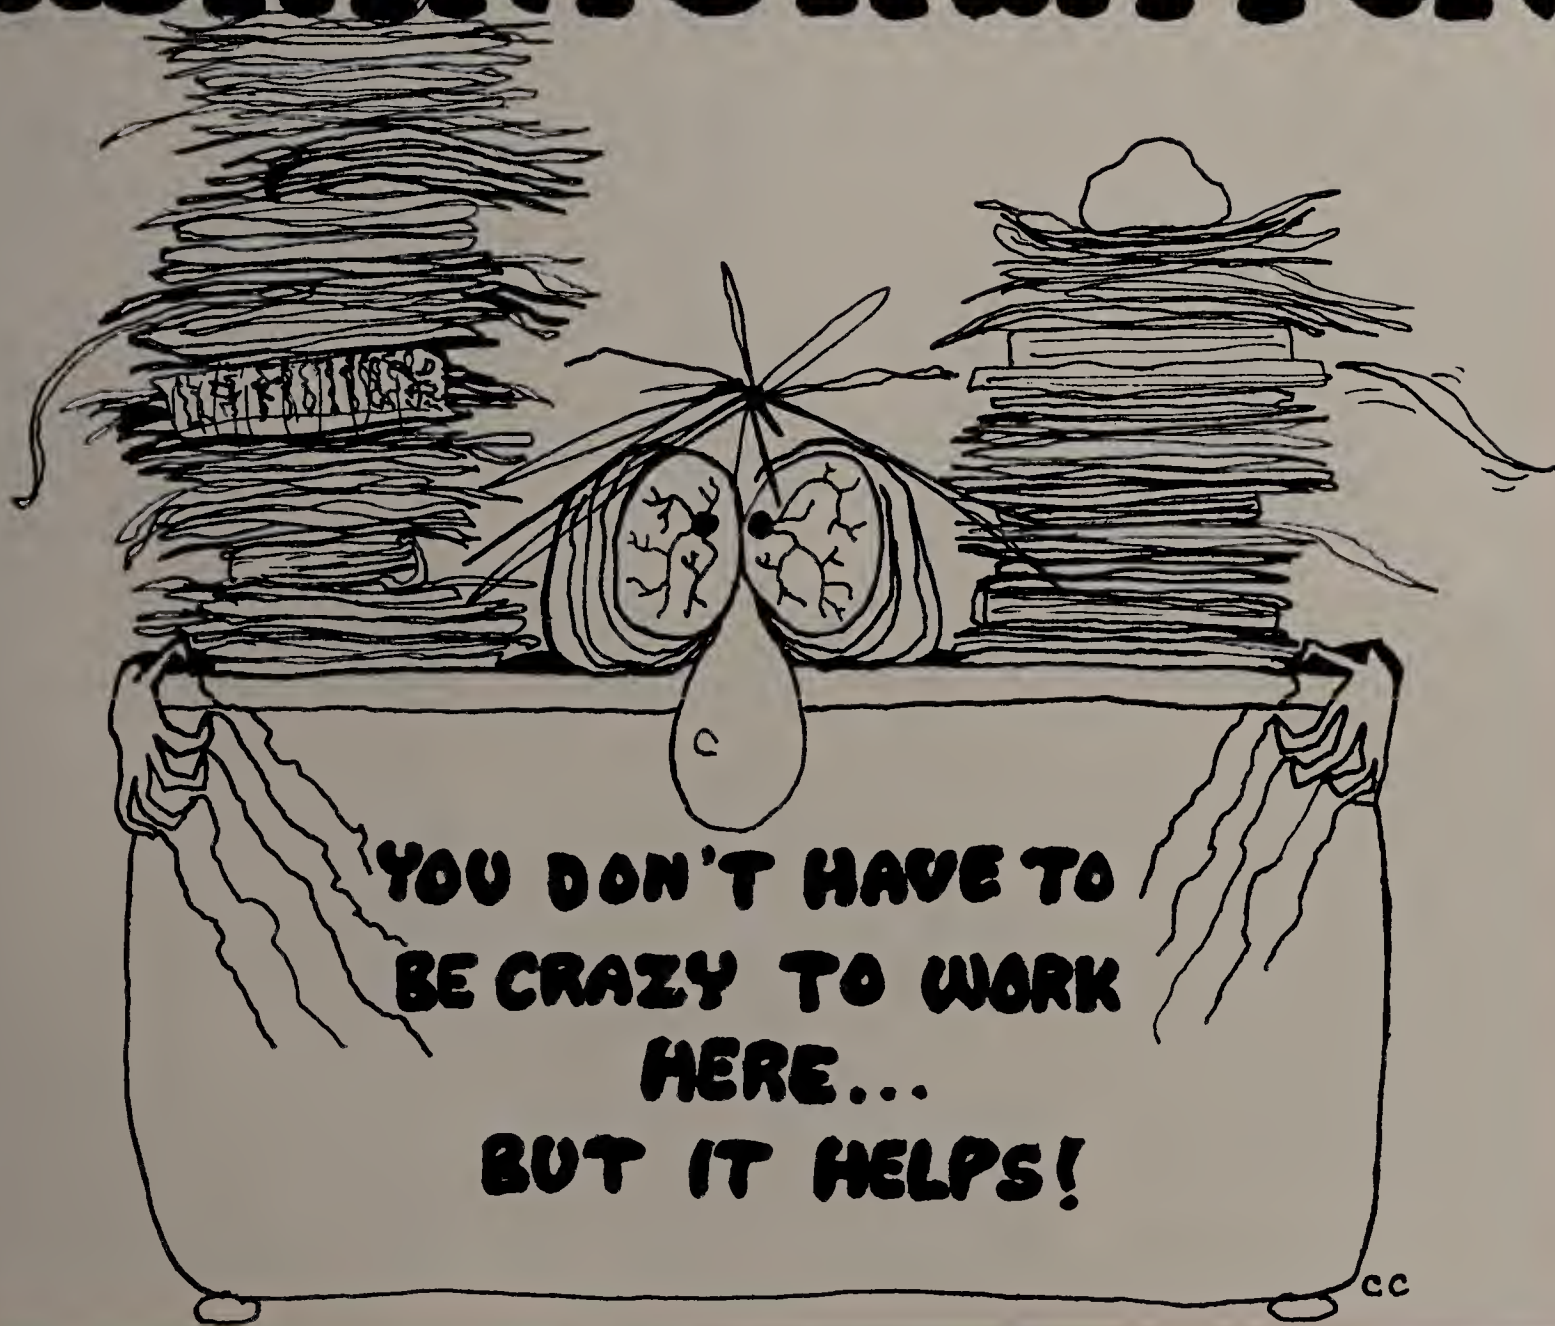

I'd like to raise a family —
I'd like to sail away —

And dance across the mountains on the moon.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

If any one of you believes that, having completed high school, you have learned all that you need to know, then I would argue long and hard with you. Most people who have dealt with people any length of time have concluded that the "know-it-all" is usually the most ignorant person in the crowd. Why do we human beings, especially we males, find it so hard to admit that there is something — in all of this vast and complex universe — that we don't know? The educated and confident person should be able to admit to being ignorant about many things. Are you, even as you accept compliments upon graduation, a big enough person to ask, as you first enter a library or a registry of deeds or a city hall or a company headquarters, "Can you help me? This is my first visit here. Could you explain how the system works?" I contend that such questions are far more intelligent than pretending to know. I would suggest that one aspect of maturity is knowing what we don't know, and trying to learn more about it.

Best wishes to you as continuing self-learners throughout a lifetime.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Members of the Class of 1978:

It is with a mixture of pride, happiness, and a tinge of sadness that I write this message to you.

Pride because I have followed the growth of the class of 1978 from somewhat frightened freshmen through the testing sophomore and junior years and finally to the leadership role of seniors. That you have grown in stature and in a sense of responsibility to yourselves is an enormous source of pride to me and to the school.

Happiness, because your graduation signals the accomplishment of having succeeded through the first twelve years of schooling and portends the continuation of a lifelong quest for knowledge whether it be in a formal or informal sense.

And sadness because I know that my contact with many of you will probably be confined to an occasional look back at this, your high school yearbook. For this book can serve as your eyes to the past — to what I hope has been, on balance, a happy and productive period of your lives.

My best to each and every one of you! My hopes that you attain whatever station in life you aspire to and that you will continue to grow in wisdom and mind as the years slip by. I shall keep this book as at least a partial memory of the years we spent together and I do hope that our paths will touch in the years to come. Keep in touch.

Very truly yours,

Harold M. Lane, Jr.

CREATIVE ARTS

I stand on the tideline.

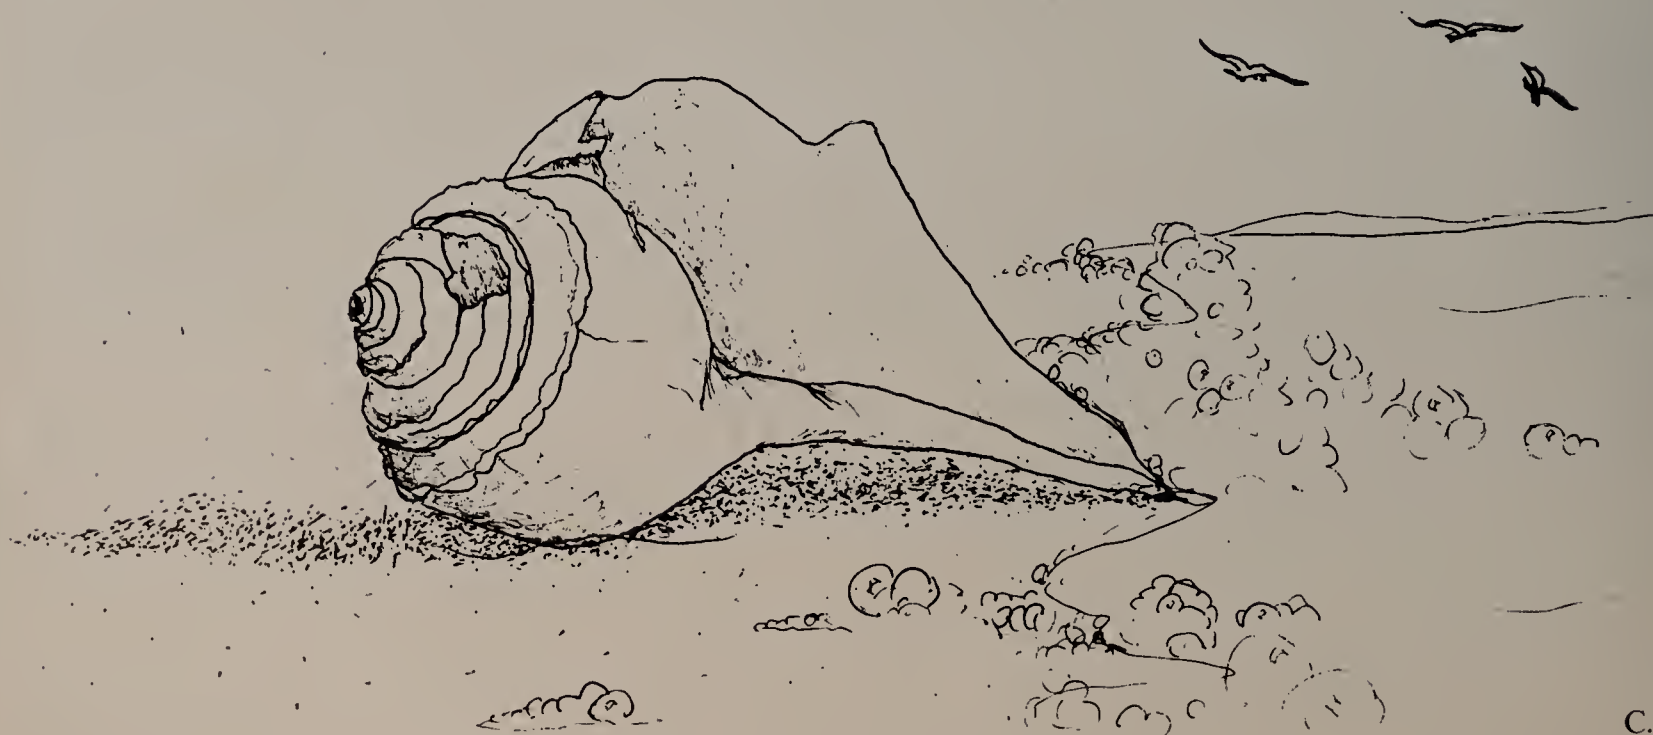

The ocean tickles my toes
Ebbing back persuading me to follow.

Beyond the line of breaking waves
I see familiar, drunken faces bobbing in the surf
Who've been seduced by the gentle undertow.

I like the solid ground beneath me.

Sand hard and soft where
I am free and my actions are my own
But never as free as the soaring seagulls.
Still I won't be hypnotized by its coaxing power
However, that may be impossible for even the gulls bend down to the sea.

 mr. t must have given us the wrong test
 why is my memory failing me just when i need it the most?
 Sue is busily writing and Ken just passed his in why am i just sitting here — doing nothing?

 'this' will probably be the last test grade . . .
 number five comes out negative can you have a negative amount of coins?
 i thought not, oh well . . .
 skip seven . . . skip eight

 i don't remember ever doing stuff like that five minutes to go . . . guess at number ten go back to number seven maybe it would look more familiar

Between Friends

There is a special bond between friends
 that nothing else can replace.
 There is a special closeness between
 friends
 that means you can erase.
 There is a communication between
 friends
 where bad times turn to good.
 Friendship is between friends.

Ann Marie Horrigan

Our time has just begun
though it seems to be the end,
Our lives have shared
All there is to share
and yet,
There seems to be more...
Our time has just begun~

Summer

A perfect, snapshot image of suntans and smiles
An infinite moment
of happiness and freedom
A huge bubble translucent helium filled sphere of rainbow hues
Everchanging in the sunlight revealing yet another shimmer of color
But so delicate
It's easily, soundlessly
Burst
Into surprised nothingness.

Sun at Seven-Fifteen

Light shaft walks on water getting not wet,
God's Sun piercing the dusk with gleaming eyes?
Or Saint Diogenes searching in regret,
Finding that only nature tells no lies?
Mixture of sad and joy, the awe serene,
Silent heaven bids me young to rest now?
Or King's shiny beacon of the peace dream,
With no ripples in the pure, no fears of how?
My stars fallen to sea still twinkle bright,
Soon ebb home to otherwise chaotic black,
Where golden hope leads rebels to life's fight,
Thy stars abundant but thy will we lack,
Absolute is the way of the evening star,
Follow thee spirit, thy soul will soar far.

W. A. S.

We create a dream
And let it flow
Through the years and tears
Until we let it go.
Pondering upon
The times gone past
How we've clung to the thoughts
That could never last.
Where did all the moments go?
The laughter, loving and special times?
The dreams we thought we'd always know
Are singing in our wake.
Kodacolor melodies.
Fade and fade on endlessly
Times are passing with ease,
It's time we hit the road . . .

A Blade of Grass

Like the single blade of grass
In the open desert field
I stand up alone, starting new and becoming unsealed.
I am fresh and green
Only small and lean
But I stretch out my roots
And shake off my boots
For I know I will make it, I am here to stay
Come on everybody, this is my big day.

Well things are not right,
The sun is high and it shines bright.
I am so tired and dry
I think fate has it, that I should die.
But on the horizon, I see the shadow of hope.
A cloud has come to save me, I no longer need to grope.
This cloud, it brings water, and it is water I need.
For if you remember, I was once just a seed.

Jeff Clarke

I do my thing, and you do your thing.
I am not in this world to live up to your expectations
And you are not in this world to live up to mine.
You are you and I am I,
And if by chance we find each other,
It's beautiful.
If not, it can't be helped.

It's All in the State of Mind.
If you think you're beaten, you are.
If you think you dare not, you won't.
If you like to win, but you don't think you can,
It's almost a cinch you won't.

If you think you'll lose, you're lost
For out in the world you find Success begins with a fellow's will.
It's All in the State of Mind.

For many a game is lost
'Ere even a play is run
And many a coward fails
'Ere even his work is begun.

Think big and deeds will grow.
Think small and you'll fall behind.
Think that you can and you will.
It's all in the State of Mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are.
You've got to think high to rise.
You've got to be sure of yourself,
Before you can win a prize.

Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man.
But sooner or later the one who wins
Is the fellow who thinks he CAN.

IT'S ALL IN THE STATE OF MIND.

Why can't we get all the people together in the world that we really like and then just stay together? I guess that wouldn't work. Someone would leave. Someone always leaves and then we have to say goodbye. I hate goodbyes. I know what I need. I need more hellos.
